

The November Elections in SF – And Beyond

How the Voters Stand to Change the Balance of Power at City Hall

A FREE urbanIDEA and San Francisco Vision community forum

Wednesday, October 12th
6:00-8:00pm

Mission Neighborhood Center
Auditorium

362 Capp Street, San Francisco

Featuring:

Isabelle Yiu, Sing Tao Daily

Joe Fitzgerald Rodriguez, San Francisco
Examiner

Julie Levak-Madding, VanishingSF

Sana Saleem, 48 Hills

Moderated by Rose Aguilar, Your Call, KALW

This November, San Franciscans will elect a majority of the Board of Supervisors and decide on a series of ballot measures that could create a new commission for housing and development, change the way vacancies are filled on the Board, transfer more power over Muni to the district supervisors, and elect a new state senator.

Join us for a conversation with local journalists as they discuss how the outcomes of this November's ballot will affect the city's future.

RSVP for this FREE event at <http://NovemberElectionForum.brownpapertickets.com>

With support from our partners:

Urban Institute for Development and Economic Alternatives
www.urbanIDEA.org

San Francisco Vision
<https://www.facebook.com/SanFranciscoVision/>